

UGANDA RETIREMENT BENEFITS REGULATORY AUTHORITY

Plot No. 1 Clement Hill Road P. O Box 7561 Kampala

PUBLIC NOTICE – LICENSE WITHDRAWAL

The Uganda Retirement Benefits Regulatory Authority (URBRA) was established by the URBRA Act, 2011, to regulate and supervise the establishment, management and operation of retirement benefits schemes in Uganda; to protect the interests of members and beneficiaries of all schemes; and to license custodians, trustees, administrators and fund managers of retirement benefits schemes.

Jomo Investments and Trustee Services Limited, a licensed Corporate Trustee, notified the Authority of its desire to voluntarily cease offering Corporate Trustee services to retirement benefits schemes in Uganda.

In accordance with the provisions of the URBRA Act, 2011 and Regulations made thereunder, the Authority approved the voluntary withdrawal with immediate effect, and withdrew Jomo Investments and Trustee Services Limited's license, number CTR-18-001.

The public is hereby duly informed that Jomo Investments and Trustee Services Limited ceased to be a Corporate Trustee licensed under the URBRA Act, 2011 with effect from 02nd June, 2022.

URBRA further confirms the safety of members' funds in the schemes that were previously under the trusteeship of Jomo Investments and Trustee Services Ltd and has put in place measures to ensure a smooth transition to new trustees for the affected schemes.
